Set on a vast property, there are three charming homes in traditional Andalusian style, each with its own pool and stunning views of the Mediterranean. What makes this finca truly special is the extensive farmland, where 16 different tropical and subtropical crops are cultivated according to Demeter biodynamic standards. From avocados to exotic fruits like passionfruit, finger lime, and Buddhas hand, this certified farm connects you directly with nature and provides a sustainable source of income. The revenue from the farming operation and rental of the three houses ranges between €400,000 and €500,000 annually, offering you a peaceful life with financial security. On the terrace and by the pool, you can savor the sunsets over the sea a daily highlight. Below it lies "Casa Mango," also with three bedrooms, two bathrooms, a spacious living area, and kitchen. Here too, a terrace and private pool invite relaxation, with breathtaking sea views to help you leave everyday worries behind. The third house, "Casa Lichi," is a single-story retreat with three bedrooms, two bathrooms, and an open living and dining area with a kitchen. Its the perfect place to welcome guests or find your own personal sanctuary. It also offers a pool. This finca offers you the opportunity to slow down, reconnect with nature, and immerse yourself in a fulfilling project.
