Costa del Sol, Fuengirola (town)

Synonymous with excellence, superiority and reliability, Lomas del Higuero 4 presents an extraordinary opportunity to acquire a new home on the beautiful Costa del Sol. This ambitious residential project has been carefully designed to meet all owners' needs, with every aspect thought through to inspire an ongoing love of home. The complex comprises 36 flats spread across 3 charming low-rise blocks, characterised by an architectural style of unparalleled quality. Here you will find a range of options, including ground floor flats, first floor residences and penthouses, each with two or three bedrooms. The ground floor options also offer private gardens, while the penthouses feature duplex layouts with a roof terrace equipped with jacuzzi and barbecue with starting prices starting at just €680,000 - €845,000. Each flat comes with two parking spaces and a storage room. In addition, this unique complex features lush communal gardens, an outdoor swimming pool and a children's playground. As an added bonus, you will receive a lifetime platinum family membership with the purchase of this property, and Lomas del Higuero 4 has a fully equipped gym with sauna, as well as a coworking space for those wishing to pursue their professional activities.
