Axarquía, Canillas de Aceituno

This cosy property is situated on the main road to Canillas de Aceituno, Malaga, Andalusia, at 2 minutes from the authentic and dynamic village of Canillas de Aceituno. The property boasts fantastic mountain and sea views. Despite its proximity to the road, this house is still perfect for relaxing.

The property consists of an outside patio where you can park your vehicle, plus a garden at the back of the house where you will find a barbecue area, a shed for storage, and a large tree that in summer becomes the ideal area to hang out.

The house consists of three bedrooms, two with double beds and a master bedroom, which has air conditioning and a radiator for the cooler winters. Entering the house, you will find the spacious living-dining room with a fireplace, and just next to it the bathroom and the small kitchen. The house also has a small roof terrace where the solar panels are located.

This property is ideal to enjoy an authentic country house with the comfort of being only 2 minutes away from the fantastic village and where you will find all the shops and amenities you may need.

It is an opportunity that you can't miss out!
