Malaga Inland, Pizarra

This property is a rare opportunity for anyone who loves a project with unlimited potential.

While the house needs some refreshing, it is already clear that this is a gem in the making — perfect as a family home, holiday retreat, small-scale rental property.

Set on an impressive 120,000 m² of agricultural land, the estate offers exceptional privacy, space, and endless possibilities. The property features its own private water well and is fully connected to mains water and electricity. It is perfectly suited for keeping horses, with existing stables already in place. The vast land gives you complete freedom to develop a wide range of agricultural or recreational projects — the potential truly has no limits.

The house itself includes:

3 bedrooms

1 bathroom

A spacious and bright dining area

A large storage room and garage, ideal for converting into a guest apartment

Outdoors, you will find a large swimming pool with ample sunbathing space and a very spacious terrace, perfect for enjoying warm summer evenings, hosting barbecues, or simply taking in the spectacular 360-degree panoramic views.

Access to the property is excellent, with a good access road and gated entry.

Pizarra is just 10 minutes away, while Málaga and the airport can be reached within 30 minutes.

The AFO is currently in progress.

In short, this is a unique opportunity to create your dream project on one of the most versatile and promising pieces of agricultural land in the region.
