Costa del Sol East, Torrox (town)

Charming villa with panoramic sea views Welcome to this fantastic villa with outstanding views of both the sea and Torrox Costa. The property's elevated position means that there are no buildings obstructing the view giving clear and unbroken sight-lines of the landscape and the Mediterranean Sea. The plot offers a large, lush garden that surrounds the house, with several patios and a covered terrace where you can enjoy both the sun and shade. The garden also has a plunge pool and jacuzzi, perfect for warm days and relaxing evenings. The home has a generous living room with a large fireplace – a natural gathering point for family and friends. The large windows let in plenty of daylight, creating a bright and comfortable indoor environment. There are three spacious bedrooms, all with air conditioning, with the master bedroom offering its own en-suite bathroom. There are two additional communal bathroom, making the house comfortable for guests as well. The location is quiet and private, yet close to Torrox Pueblo – a picturesque village with restaurants, shops and local atmosphere. A family home with generous proportions – contact us today for a viewing!
