Axarquía, Canillas de Aceituno

This beautifully designed villa is located approximately a 10 minutes drive from the Alcaucin road, down a half concreted/ half dirt track towards Canillas de Aceituno direction boasting amazing views of both the lake and the sea and having total privacy with no nearby neighbours. The house has vaulted ceiling in most of the rooms and very big security windows allowing in lots of light and the surrounding breath-taking scenery. The front door leads into the large dining room and from here the house is distributed towards the huge living room with panoramic views, kitchen area, and the 3 bedrooms and bathrooms. 2 bedrooms have en-suite facilities, and the master bedroom also has a very beautiful living area and walking wardrobe. Outside there is a front porch and a large, covered terrace with views of the lake. At the back of the house, the land was prepared to install an above the ground pool. Mains water and a modern solar system that powers the whole house with an automatic large back up generator allowing you to almost be off the grid.
