Costa del Sol, Málaga

Set in the heart of Málaga on quiet back street this ground-floor apartment is spacious with a loft style living area with high ceilings. The open-plan layout creates a modern living space, perfect for entertaining. It also has a small central share patio garden which is currently full of beautiful plants. The building dating back to 1910 retains some period features and allows you to own a part of the rich vibrant history of Málaga. Just steps from the center, this unique home is in the perfect location to enjoy the city. One of Málaga's beautiful historic churches also sits right outside your front door.
