Axarquía, Comares

This traditional country house is located at the back of Comares, only a 10 minutes drive to the village and around 45 minutes drive to the coast.

The property is accessed via a private short dirt track and house is completely private, with no near neighbours around.

The main house comprises a living room, dining room, fitted kitchen, large bathroom and 2 bedrooms. Downstairs, there is an independent dwelling with currently a living room used as a therapy room and another room at the back, so it could be easily converted into separate accommodation.

Outside there are a couple of chicken sheds and a lovely front terrace. The land is naturally landscaped with rocks and has the most amazing views.
