Axarquía, Canillas de Aceituno (Town)

This village house is located next to the famous "Olive & Ivy" guesthouse, right in the center of the magical white village of Canillas de Aceituno, Axarquía, in the southernmost Spanish province of Malaga.

A small corridor, decorated with plants, gives you access to this charming and typically Spanish village house.

On entering the house, you step into a cozy dining room. A few steps up is the living room, which is next to the partially equipped kitchen, with the bathroom next door.

From the living room you take a staircase up and enter a large bedroom adjacent to a small room with access to a long terrace overlooking the street and the village.

This house certainly has potential and is very well located amidst all the amenities that this lively village of Canillas de Aceituno has to offer.
