Axarquía, Sedella

This big and extremely well located town house is waiting for you in Sedella, Axarquia, Malaga.

From a cute alley you enter this large village house directly into the living room located right next to a spacious kitchen. Two steps up from the living room you step into the central hallway where you will find the bathroom right in front of you.

To the left in the hallway you can take the stairs down where there is a large barn that opens onto the underlying street.

To the right in the hallway you will find a spacious dining room with a view over the valley.

From the hallway you can also take the stairs up to the next floor where there are 4 very large bedrooms.

It goes without saying that this house is a dream for an owner with a vision.

A huge roof terrace with breathtaking views over the valley and mountains can be built on top of the 4 bedrooms and the immense underlying barn with entry directly from the street can be converted into a large living space with, for example, a modern open kitchen.

This house is waiting for to be transformed into a dream home.
