Axarquía, Canillas de Aceituno (Town)

Not easy to find such a nice, large townhouse! Moreover, in one of the nicest white villages in Axarquia, Andalusia! Canillas de Aceituno is a very dynamic town thanks to the famous El Saltillo trail, the beautiful La Maroma mountain peak and the nature preserve to which thousands of people come to hike all year long!

As soon you enter the house you will be charmed by the many authentic features, such as the terracota tiles and the wooden beams. The owners have renovated the house to high standards but kept the authentic look and feel.

The ground floor consists of a spacious living room with air conditioning, a dining room and a kitchen.

A charming staircase brings you to the basement where you have a double bedroom, a single bedroom and a bathroom.

On the first floor you have a cosy office area, a bathroom and 3 bedrooms, with air conditioning.

And you'll enjoy a good glass of wine on the terrace while looking at the great mountain and peaceful village views!

This beautiful property is ready to move in as all the furniture and accessories are included!

If you dream of living under the Andalusian sun and you like Spanish authenticity this is absolutely the place to be!
