Axarquía, Cómputa

Nestled atop an elevated ridge with commanding views of Cómputa, the renowned Villa Chile property has long been a fixture in the local landscape. Once a celebrated restaurant, it drew crowds for its striking backdrop and versatile dining spaces, both indoors and out. Though now a private residence, the property's use is vast, suited for endeavors ranging from boutique hotel accommodation, a restaurant to hosting weddings. Villa Chile now needs some reforming to bring it to a more modern status to maximise its potential. Positioned to overlook valleys cascading to the sea and framed by the majestic Sierra Tejada mountains, including the iconic La Maroma, and within a short walking distance to Cómputa village, Villa Chile is accessed via a grand driveway leading to ample parking. A grand staircase leads to the main house, surrounded by expansive terraces adorned with charming flower beds, while a secluded pool area offers panoramic views of Cómputa and the National Park. Additionally, a quaint guest cottage, retaining its historic allure despite modern updates, adds to the property's appeal. Set amidst terraced grounds adorned with mature olive and fruit trees, Villa Chile epitomizes serene luxury.
