Property Details:

This character property has been very much loved by the owner for many years providing a family home that had been loved and cherished. The house sits in a mature gardens with many large trees, feeling secluded and private surrounded by nature.

The house is very well built and retains many of the original features. A shaded terrace sits to the front of the property, you can imagine spending many an evening dining under the lovely pergola. Entering the property into an entrance hallway, from here you have access to the main bedroom that is located downstairs, with bathroom adjacent. The kitchen sits directly in front with views over the valley. Opening into the lounge/dining room, this is a very social house. French doors open from the lounge to the elevated terrace to the rear of the property and those lovely panoramic views of the valley and down towards the bay of Málaga. To the right of the lounge is an internal door that leads to the garage and workshop.

Upstairs you will find two further bathrooms and a family bathroom.

The separate casita sits to the left of the property and feels very private. The casita is a Swedish Build and an excellent construction, it has been rented out in the past to achieve an income. The side of the casita is a private terrace and pathway that leads to the pool area. The pool again again feels secluded and is surrounded by mature plantings with the natural rock as back drop.

This property really is one of a kind.
